Chris Droom
Designer at Good Praxis

I freelanced as a UX researcher in June 2021

Samantha led UX research for one of our recent client projects. She introduced new research methods and clearly explained actionable findings to the team. Very well-informed, proactive, and collaborative. I'd recommend Samantha without hesitation and we hope to work with her again in the future.

Managing Director
at Joined Up Thinking

I volunteered there between July 2020 to May 2021

Joined Up Thinking had the pleasure of having Samantha volunteer as a Telephone Befriender. When you have a reliable, dedicated, trustworthy, proactive and amicable volunteer, you have an asset. Samantha is an asset. Samantha is someone you definitely want on your team.
